Rental Details

Luxury Island Villa Rental Nelson Gay stands as a testament to six decades of charm and sophistication, offering discerning travelers a luxurious escape amidst 1.5 acres of meticulously landscaped gardens. Nestled on the outskirts of Speightstown, Barbados, this elegant coral stone mansion was originally constructed in the 1950s as the distinguished residence of a United States Ambassador. Its distinguished architecture, characterized by 14-foot ceilings in the living room and a stunning 50-foot pool adorned with intricate Italian mosaics depicting marine life, seamlessly integrates luxury with the captivating allure of the tropics.
