Rental Details

The Villa Nestled on the beachfront of L'Ansecoy Bay, overlooking the majestic Atlantic Ocean, Jacaranda is a stunning example of Caribbean colonial-style architecture. Initially built by Arne Hasselqvist in 1987 and expanded in 2016, this exquisite villa offers breathtaking views of the northern Grenadines. Recently renovated to elevate its allure, Jacaranda exudes elegance and sophistication, providing a glamorous haven amidst lush landscaped gardens. With the ocean just steps away and The Cotton House within a short walk, this remarkable villa presents a captivating setting.
