The Villa There is nothing else quite like The Catch on Providenciales. Set within four acres of mature tropical landscaping at the unspoilt tip of the Leeward Settlement, this is a residence of deep character and genuine rarity — a property that has been loved quietly for decades and has emerged from a significant recent refurbishment with all its soul intact. The architecture is rooted in authentic Caribbean tradition: original hardwood panelling and floors, pitched beamed ceilings, natural stone and timber used throughout with an instinctive understanding of what the climate and the landscape require.
