GENERAL INFORMATION

GETTING THERE

- Fly into Barbados
- Private flight to Union Island. ($700 rt)
- Boat from Union Island and Petit St. Vincent ($35 rt)
- Both the private flight and the boat transfer will be arranged for you

CONNECTIVITY

Petit St. Vincent has been designed with total relaxation in mind, therefore unlimited wifi is available only in the reception area. Mobile phones work well in the cottages and in the resort

SUSTAINABILITY

Petit St. Vincent is committed to sustainability, in line with a “farm-to-fork” philosophy, many of the fruits, vegetables and herbs used in the dishes are grown in an organic chef garden, fresh eggs for our morning breakfasts are from our own chickens and a state-of-the-art reverse osmosis desalination plant processes ocean water to ensure a supply of safe freshwater from every tap. The resort has its own water bottling plant and reef regeneration program.

ACTIVITIES

Diving

Petit St. Vincent is home to the Jean-Michel Cousteau Dive Center. Founded by the son of the legendary explorer and conservationist, Jacques-Yves Cousteau, the state-of-the-art PADI 5 Star centre offers diving courses, certifications, and guided trips to some of the area's best dive sites.

Fishing

Set sail and fish for barracuda, Mahi Mahi and yellowfin tuna. Drop anchor at some of the best spots for snorkelling and scuba diving before barbecuing freshly caught seafood on deck.

Complimentary non-motorized Motor Sports

With a water temperature of around 84°F, a moderate breeze all year round, and an entire underwater world just waiting to be discovered, Petit St. Vincent is the ideal place for a wide variety of water sports including Kayaking, Windsurfing & Kite Surfing

Fitness

Begin the day with a hike to the summit of Marni Hill for breathtaking panoramic views, enjoy a full-body workout with our 20-station outdoor calisthenic fitness trail.

Tennis

Perfect your serve on our floodlit tennis courts.

Golf

If you're keen to enjoy a round of golf during your stay, head to the nearby Canouan Island and play on one of the most picturesque courses in the Grenadines.
